

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freshest Advices Foreign and Domestick.

FROM THURSDAY May 21, to THURSDAY May 28, 1741.

B E R L I N, February 23.

THE King has receiv'd an Express, that Major General de la Morte, at the Head of a Detachment of his Majesty's Troops, had made himself Master of the Town and Fort of Jablunka. This place is the more considerable, as it is the Key of Silesia on the side of Hungary, from whence there lies no other Passage into that Province.

The Day before Yesterday, about Five in the Morning, the King set out on his Return to Silesia.

News arrived to-day, that a Body of 1500 Austrian Troops, had come to attack the Bourg of Friedec near Troppan, wherein was a Garrison of 500 Men, commanded by Major Munchow; but had been repulsed with the loss of about 60 Men killed, besides the wounded.

Berlin, February 28. The last Advices we have received from Silesia inform us, that the King arriv'd at Sweidnitz the 21st Instant, where his Majesty fix'd the Head Quarters of the Army. They add, that in all Appearance the Troops will take the Field the 15th of next Month, and begin the Operations of the Campaign with the Sieges of Neits and Brieg.

Madrid, February 7. The Preparations are continued here for the Expedition projected in Italy. It's assur'd, that his Majesty, pursuant to the Report of the Commissioners who have examin'd into the Conduct of the late Governor of Porto Bello, has impos'd no other Penalty upon him than to be imprison'd a certain Number of Years. A Project has been sent to America for securely bringing back the Galleons.

Breslau, February 16. The Veldt-Marshal Count Schwerin, has publish'd a Declaration on the Frontiers of Moravia, signifying to the Inhabitants of that Principality, that the King of Prussia, far from intending to do them any Harm, has no other View but to make them feel the Effects of his Royal Protection; that therefore his Prussian Majesty hopes they will carefully avoid taking up Arms against him or against his Troops, otherwise they must impute to themselves the Mischiefs that may befall them, if they oblige his Prussian Majesty to treat them as Enemies. The Prussian Troops who were marching towards the Confines of Moravia, are actually re-assembled in the Heart of this Country. We have receiv'd Advice, that the 6th Instant, in the Night, the Garrison of Neits made a Sally on the Prussians, in which they took 30 of the latter Prisoners, with one of their Officers. General Brown, who had retir'd towards Olmutz, has been join'd by the Regiment of Spleni, Hussars.

The King of Prussia has sent a great Number of Protestant Preachers into Silesia, who on the 29th of last Month began to preach in many Churches there, where the Prayer which the King has drawn up himself is always recited.

Constantinople, January 11. The Post is just going out, and all the City is in an Uproar. The Seditions are assembled in great Numbers, and demand the deposing of the Grand Signior, or at least of the Grand Vizier. What all this will come to we don't yet know, but a great Revolution is fear'd in this Empire.

Stockholm, February 7. The Diet is speedily to deliberate upon a very important Affair, the Determination of which is expected with the utmost Impatience. A fresh Body of Troops, with Ammunition, it's said, will in the Month of March be transported into Finland.

Stockholm, February 12. As the Dyet advance in their Deliberations, we perceive more and more that the Measures taken in the last will be closely follow'd: The greatest Unanimity reigns among the Nobility, and the other Orders of the Kingdom appear fully convinced of the Necessity of those Measures. The Secret Committee will forthwith make a Report of their Deliberations to the Dyet, after which the States will take a final Resolution, which we expect will be a very remarkable one. Sweden, by the good Order which has been re-establish'd in her Finances, and the Alliances she has made, finds herself in a Condition to give great Weight to her Resolutions. Our Troops having been augmented to 80,000 Men, we can, in case of need, reinforce our Army in Finland to 50 or 60,000 Men. The Fleet which consists of 22 Ships of the Line, and 10 Frigates, is in as good a Condition as can be desir'd. The Conferences which Mr. Burnaby, charg'd with the British Affairs, has had with Count Gyllenbourg and the other Ministers, only roul'd on the Convention relating to the Affair of Porto Novo.

Vienna, February 15. The Levies go on with all the Success imaginable; never did we see such Numbers of young Men voluntarily offer to enlist in the Queen's Troops. It is the same in all the hereditary Countries, and upwards of 6000 Gentlemen, chiefly Hungarians, have offered to serve at their own Charge in the War against the Prussians.

M. de Grave, Agent of the Amick Council, having refused to divest himself of the Character of Resident from the King of Prussia, which he bore, the Court has order'd him to retire within eight Days from her Majesty's Dominions. A few Days ago a Spaniard of the highest Distinction who has resided here these several Years, and receiv'd a Pension from the Court of Madrid, was arrested and carried to the Castle of Neustadt: He is charged with holding a dangerous Correspondence with that Court. Two Sicilian Marquesses of whom the Court had strong Suspicions, have absconded.

Vienna, February 18. The Spanish Lord who was a few Days since arrested, and carried to Neustadt, is the Duke of Uzede of the House of Pacheco.

Ratisbon, February 13. They write from Munich, that when Mr. Klingraaf had his first Audience of the Elector of Bavaria, he made many Proposals to that Prince from the King of Prussia; to which the Elector answered, That he would with Pleasure accept of the Proposals made by his Prussian Majesty, but that as his sole View was to preserve Peace in the Empire, he was resolv'd to avoid doing any Thing contrary thereto. The Bavarian Troops which were in march towards the Frontiers of Tyrol have receiv'd Orders to halt, from which favourable Circumstances, it is believ'd, that the Differences between the Court of Vienna and Munich will be accommodated in a friendly Manner.

Charleston, May 28. Last Friday arrived here his Majesty's Ship the Tartar Pink, Capt. Townsend from Providence.

Capt. James Croft who arrived here last Friday from Gibraltar, says, that on the 10th Instant, he met with two Homeward-bound Bermudas Privateers, who then came from St. Martin's; one commanded by Capt. Love, and the other by Capt. James Richardson; by whom Capt. Croft was inform'd, that Admiral VERNON had laid Siege to Carthagena the 9th of March, landed 12,000 Men and taken 3 Castles. Capt. Liddell who brought the first Account of Carthagena's being taken, sail'd from Jamaica the 26th of March.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman at Port-Royal, to his Honour the Lieutenant Governor, dated May 25, 1741.

This Morning arrived here Capt. Legall, in 19 Days from Montserrat, and 13 from Anguilla; who confirms the Report of Admiral VERNON's taking Carthagena, with the Loss of Two 60 Gun Ships: He also says, he met about a Fortnight since, a Fleet of Men of War and Transports (consisting of above 40 Sail) going down to Jamaica, and they went into Antigua.
